

*Across Australia by Motor Car - by Francis Birtles
In The Lone Hand July 1 1912*

Next day we arrived at Coolgardie and replenished our supplies, and then made for Norseman

There were no roads from Coolgardie to Ceduna it was a challenge to make your way eastward and importantly to find water holes— this was Frank's major task as navigator.